The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 19. to Saturday March 23. 1717.

St. James's, March 22.

AN humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bucks, at the Aſſizes held at Ailesbury, March 11, 1716 17; has been preſented to His Majeſty by Richard Hamden, Eſq; Foreman of the Grand Jury, and one of the Knights of the Shire of Bucks, and William Mead, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen and others, introduced by the Right Honourable the Marqueſs of Wharton.

An humble Addreſs of the Burghers and Inhabitants of the Borough of Ailesbury in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Marqueſs of Wharton, attended by ſome of the principal Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough.

An humble Addreſs of the High-Steward, Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chipping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has alſo been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Marqueſs of Wharton, High-Steward of the ſaid Borough.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid, March 8. The Pope's Nuncio, Sig. Aldrovandi, is expected very ſuddenly from Rome: He left this Place laſt Summer, and returns with all the Differences adjuſted between the two Courts. Hereupon the fitting out at Malaga of the Squadron of Men of War, which is to be at the Pope's Diſpoſal, and ſerve in the Levant againſt the Turks this Summer, is haſtened, and Seamen from all the Coaſts of this Kingdom are ordered to repair to Malaga. That Squadron conſiſts of ſeven Men of War. Orders are alſo ſent to Barcelona, for getting ready ſix Gallies to be employed in the ſame Service in the Levant. The Miquelets who having been taken in Arms are now in Priſon, or who ſhall be taken in Arms, are inſtead of being put to Death, as formerly, to ſerve at the Oar in thoſe Gallies. His Majeſty has appointed Don Felix Cornejo, who was Secretary of the Ambaſſy in France under the late Duke of Alva, to be his Envoy to the Swiſs Cantons.

Berlin, March 20. The King of Denmark has written a Letter to his Pruſſian Majeſty, dated the 13th Inſtant, to acquaint him with his Reſolution of allowing no Ships whatſoever to trade any longer to Sweden, neither from Dantzick, Lubeck, nor any other neutral Port; and to deſire his Pruſſian Majeſty would join in this Regulation for the common Intereſt of the Alliance, and give the neceſſary Orders at Koningsberg, and his other Ports in the Baltick. Eight more Battallions of Ruſſians have Orders to leave Mecklenburgh, and will be ready to march in about a Fortnight's Time, after which there will only remain nine Battallions, beſides the Regiments of Guards, and the Gallies, under General Weyde. Count Golofkin was laſt Week to wait on the King at Potſdam, with a Letter from the Czar, and a Compliment for the Civilities which were ſhewn the Czarine during here Stay at Weſel. On the 18th Major General Schultz paſſed through this Town, in his Way from Petersburgh to the Czar. The King went Yeſterday to Old Brandenbourg, to view his own Regiment; and was expected to Day at Spandaw, to muſter a Battallion of Invalids which has been lately formed. The laſt Letters from Warſaw are of the 13th of this Month. The King of Poland had then notified his Reſolution to ſet out on the 20th or 24th; and if the Water be open by that Time, deſigned to go down the Viſtula as far as Dantzick: 'Tis adviſed, that he purpoſes to ſtay ſix or ſeven Months in Saxony.

Copenhagen, March 20. The King of Denmark, who returned hither Yeſterday, has given repeated Orders to the Intendant of the Arſenals, to get ready the Prahmes and other Flat-bottom Veſſels proper to be uſed in making a Deſcent; and Men are ſet to work upon them with all Diligence. According to the laſt Advices from Schonen, Corn is exceſſive dear in that Province as well as in other Parts of Sweden.

Bruſſels, March 25. The Communities called the Seven Nations of this City, have been aſſembled ſeveral Days; but cannot by any Perſwaſions of the Magiſtrates be induced to give their Conſent to the Subſidy required by the Marqueſs de Prié, Adminiſtrator of theſe Provinces. The City of Antwerp makes the ſame Difficulties to conſent to the Subſidy, and